

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Master's programme Public Management in International Cooperation – Designing African-European and Intra-African Relations

NEW START SEPTEMBER 24

Are you passionate about making a positive impact on a global scale?

Are you eager to enhance your skills in public management within the realm of international cooperation? Then look no further!

We are thrilled to announce the new application phase 2024 for our innovative hybrid Master's Programme in Public Management in International Cooperation.

Programme Overview:

Our cutting-edge hybrid Master's Programme is designed to equip future leaders with the knowledge and skills needed to navigate the complexities of public management in the context of international cooperation. Blending theoretical insights with practical applications, this program offers a unique learning experience that combines online coursework with intense study weeks on-site.

Key Features:

- Comprehensive curriculum covering international relations, public policy, project management, and more.
- Expert faculty with extensive experience in international cooperation and public management.
- Immersive learning experiences through on-site projects.
- Networking opportunities with professionals and organizations in the international development sector.

Application Deadline:

The application deadline for the Master's Programme in Public Management in International Cooperation is March 11th, 2024. Don't miss your chance to be part of this transformative learning experience!

Requirements:

To be eligible for this program, applicants must:

- Hold a bachelor's degree of 180 ECTS or 6 semesters in a relevant field of study.
- Prove a two years professional experience and demonstrate a strong interest in international cooperation and public management.
- Prove an English language proficiency of min. B2 CEFR.

Application Documents:

- Letter of motivation in English including the following questions: "Why do I want to apply to this study program?" & "Why is the program important in the overall perspective?"
- Curriculum vitae (CV)
- Proof of university degree by a university certificate and a transcript of records.
IMPORTANT: You must have your foreign degree certificate recognised by the Studienkolleg Konstanz. This can take up to 6 weeks. You can find more information on this in the Guide.
- Proof of English language proficiency level B2 by means of a certificate such as TOEFL or Cambridge Certificate. If your university degree is based on an English-language study programme, please submit proof of this from your university. In this case, you do not need a language certificate.
- Support Letter of employer to grant leave
- Passport copy

Costs:

- Tuition fees of 4,500 € per semester
- Tuition fees can be decreased in accordance with your income.
- Travel costs of approx. 10,000 euros for the entire degree programme, for which grants are available

Where to Apply:

Visit our online application portal at Online Application to start your journey towards a rewarding career in international cooperation.

Information Session:

Learn more about the program and get your questions answered by joining our virtual information session on Thursday, 8 February 2024, 4pm CET. Please register here.

For more information, please visit our official website: PMIC website

Seize this opportunity to advance your career and contribute to positive global change through effective public management in international cooperation. We look forward to welcoming you to our diverse and dynamic learning community!

University Kehl

Service Centre "Studies & Teaching" - Master office PMIC

PMIC@hs-kehl.de